Avalanche Blend: (Avalanche Blend)

Roast:

A blend of coffee from Central America, East Africa, and Indonesia. Its body and slightly nutty flavor come from Indonesia's humid tropics; its spiciness from the high mountains of Central America; and its rich hints of fruit from East Africa's ancient volcanic soil. The result is a rich, mellow cup with multi-layered flavors.

Slap Shot Supremo: (Decaf Dark Colombian Supremo)

Roast:

All the finest characteristics of Colombian Supremo combined with the deep, smoky flavor and aroma of French Roast. Rich, full body with a snap of acidity.

Jamaican Me Crazy for Hockey: (Jamaican Me Crazy)

Roast:

Our best seller! This rich new flavor is a bit of paradise in your cup. A swirl of vanilla caramel with a touch of kahlua. Use your imagination with some cream & sugar and you might as well be on vacation.

A Latté Goals Blend: (Latté Blend)

Roast:

Dark-roasted Indonesian & Central American beans create a heavy body with an intense, smoky flavor. Excellent for brewing or making espresso.

Jack Hammer Blend: (Velvet Hammer Blend)

Roast:

Intense in every category! Colombian, Guatemalan and Sumatra provide body and sharp acidity enveloped in a smoky flavored Italian Roast. "The coffee lover's coffee".
